

ECONOMY

Economy in fuel consumption—Economy in tire mileage—Economy in upkeep—and most of all, Economy in the long run because of everlasting quality.

It was a Buick that won the Wisconsin Reliability Contest with an average of 24.8 miles the gallon 500 miles.

Hundreds of unsolicited letters from satisfied owners vouch for economy of upkeep and records of tire mileage. Samples of Buick longevity and uninterrupted service, in the various models, from the first one built. They're service—some of them in our home town.

Built in Fours and Sixes $900 to $1,450

A Cabbage Head.

A bashful and not over-educated fellow went to see his girl the other night, and as he started away he put his arm around her and whispered in her ear, "dear- ent, I love!" and she responded sweetly, "ditto," meaning, of course, a reciprocation of his tender passion. The young man could not find "ditto" in his vocabulary and asked his father the next day as they were hoeing cabbage what it meant. The old man rested a moment on his hoe, and pointed to the cabbage in front of him with the remark: "You see that cabbage?" "Yes," responded the youth, "and you see the next one there?" "Yes," "Well that is called 'ditto.'" "Damn her!" exclaimed the impetuous youth, "she called me a cabbage head."—MOUNTAIN ECHO.

Typewriter for Christmas

Try as you will, you will not be able to find anything which will please them more, be more useful, last longer, or do them more actual and lasting good

There are hundreds of ways in which a typewriter, in the hands of an energetic boy or girl, can be turned into a source of steady income—soliciting subscriptions, writing examination papers, writing skeleton reports of school lectures, writing manuscripts for literary neighbors or professors, acting as recording secretary for various organizations, etc. Did you even wish your boy would employ his leisure more profitably? Get him a typewriter and see him go to work.

When your boy enters business life, a knowledge of the Remington, Smith Premier or Monarch Typewriter will stand him in good stead. Whether he learns stenography or not, typewriting always comes in handy.

For girls too—do you know that the Remington Typewriter has founded the profession which today gives more girls and young women independent means of livelihood than any other modern invention? This is reason enough why a typewriter is always a valuable Christmas gift for a girl.
